CENTRAL IS PICKED TO LAND HONORS IN TODAY'S TITLE GAME

Today's game—Central vs. Eastern, 3:15 p. m. A. L. Park, referee. Mr. Gass, Lehigh, umpire. Mr. McGuire, Harvard, linesman. Lieutenant Shaffroth, Navy, timer. Periods, 10 minutes. Friday—Business vs. Western.

By BRYAN MORSE.

Central High School today has a chance to bring home its first championship to the new school. The eleven coached by C. A. Metzler is opposing the Eastern High School eleven at American League Park, and the chances greatly favor the Central team.

The Easterners will give Central all the battle they are looking for, but it is almost a foregone conclusion that Central will emerge from the contest a winner by a good sized margin.

Those who are on the inside expect Central to be on the long end of the largest score made in the series to date. Central has put up a finished performance in all of its games, has demonstrated a variety of attack and a sterling defense.

Added to this Central has done well on defense and has demonstrated its ability to stick right to football all during the games in which it has played.

Eastern has produced a well coached scrappy eleven which is calculated to surprise Central. The Capitol Hill boys made Tech hustle all the way and were beaten by a single point.

As surprises are always the feature of the scholastic games today's performance may be expected to run true to form.

The line-ups will be as follows: Central. Position. Eastern. Eason (Cap.)... L. E. Cummings (Cap.) Bedwell... L. T. Brockwell Roavies... L. G. Waldorf Nash... R. G. Burns Hoagland... R. G. Burns Taber... R. T. Baldwin Kaplan... R. E. Dunn Guy... Q. B. Sweeney Strohecker... L. H. B. Speer Gottlieb... R. H. B. Sweeney Long... P. B. Mengert

The final game of the scholastic title series will be played Friday afternoon, when Western and Business take the field. If Central walks off with today's battle these schools will contest for second honors.

A loss for Central today would make the winner of Friday's game on a par with Central for the championship. If Central is tied today the championship will be won by Metzler's boys.

Upon their showing today and Friday many of the players will be selected for the All-High team. Central has several boys who will wear watching, as has Business, Friday.

No Prep Contest.

Despite the fact that the Georgetown Preps have sent Central a challenge for a game to decide the scholastic title, it is thought that Central will disband immediately after today's game.

There was some talk of an inter-city game with the champion team of Baltimore, but this has fallen through. A game between the Preps and the high school winner might be a financial success and would be productive of some first rate football.

Friday's game will mark the end of the scholastic football season here. The athletes will start immediately upon the indoor track and basketball season. Games are being booked for the teams before the Christmas holidays, as the title games are to start January 5.

CLERGYMEN ACTIVE ON BOWLING ALLEYS

Are Among Many Types That Favor Indoor Pastime—Roll Excellent Scores.

By R. D. THOMAS.

Bowling probably is the most cosmopolitan of all sporting pastimes. How doctors, lawyers, mechanics and laborers rub shoulders on the alleys often has been repeated. Here of late, however, the game has branched out in a different direction. Members of the clergy are laying aside their conventional dignity on occasions and taking a crack at the pins.

Two or three times a week six or seven clergymen gather at the Arcade for an afternoon of beneficial and entertaining exercise. They roll the game for all it's worth, too, as witness the scores around the 130 mark boasted by several of them. Though they have little time to spend at bowling, naturally, compared with the regular run of bowlers, these staid brethren of the church average around 100 at ducky pins.

"It is a good, clean sport," says one of them, "and can't be beaten for mild exercise." Two matches of more than ordinary interest will be rolled Thursday and Friday in the National Capital League when the Columbians and Casinos clash Thursday at the Palace and the Inglesides and Royale Friday at the National Capital. All four teams are well up in the league standing.

Scott leads bowlers. Some fairly good rolling has been seen in the tournament being conducted at the Southeast alleys, which will wind up Thanksgiving Day, with turkeys as prizes. Fifty bowlers with the fifty best totals for three games will be selected for the roll-off, and six birds will be awarded the fortunate ones.

Wood Batters Headpin. Madeo Wood, of the Palace team, led an unusual record in the match between Palace and Southeast Stars, at the Southeast alleys last night. He hit the headpin twenty-five consecutive times, missing it in the sixth frame of his third game, shooting on a spare. Wood got bad breaks on nearly all the hits, however, and rolled only mediocre scores, 83, 109, and 95.

Palace trimmed the Southeasters two out of three and loosened the latter's grip on second place in the league. Andy Goddard, the Southeast veteran, gave an exhibition of what constitutes a good bowler, ability to clean up the wood. He went through the first game with one spare break, which he made, and rolled 93. He got one break in the second game, blew it, and got 91 flat. In the third he rolled 111 with three marks. With only four marks in three games he missed a 300 total by five pins.

Exciting Match. The Palace-Southeast match was one of the most interesting ever rolled on the Southeast ramps. All three games were decided in the last box. Watson, anchor for Palace, was the shining light of the battle, coming through in one of the games with a strike on a spare in the tenth which gave the needed margin to win, and contributed a good count in the other same Palace won.

Harry Armiger slipped in a strike on a spare at the end of the first game which decided it in Palace's favor.

Grand Central Still Lead. Royals smothered the Resolutes in three games in the District League and all but overtook the Grand Central for the leadership. The standing of the first three teams in the circuit follows:

	W.	L.	Pct.
Grand Central	18	6	.750
Royals	20	7	.741
Continental	17	7	.708

Continental roll the Sherman tonight at the Royal. The Grand Central's next match is with the Garri-sons Thursday at the Grand Central.

Match Game Today. Center Market Cafe, which defeated the Joe Phillips team last week, meets Steve Costello's Specials this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Grand Central. Some lively competition is developing among Center Market teams and before long it is expected a league will be organized.

Relief of the Departmental League Auditors, had the best single game of last night's rolling, 135, while Will Farrow, Jr., of the Resolutes, won set honors with 315. His games were 89, 131, and 136.

Suppose Fatimas were NOT Sensible

It isn't possible to fool men for long. Lincoln said that better than we could. Surely, if Fatimas were not as comfortable to the throat and tongue as we say they are—if they did not leave a man feeling keen and "fit" after a long-smoking day—do you suppose that more Fatimas would be sold every day than any other high-grade cigarette? Remember these facts as you try Fatimas and observe how comfortable, how sensible they really are.
